

Answer the following questions about résumés.

1. What do you expect to find on a typical résumé in the US? List at least four things.

2. Which, if any, of these items would you include on a résumé?

- a photo of yourself
- your hobbies
- your marital status/number of children
- your birthdate/age
- your email/webpage address
- how badly you need the job

3. For those items that aren't typical/required in your region, why do you think employers in Germany would want that information on a résumé?
